RELEASE TIME FOR FULL TIME EMPLOYEES

It is expected that employees will make every effort to schedule courses before or after the workday.

When courses must be taken during the workday, full-time employees may request up to four hours per week for actual class time (on-the-job time to attend class). This release time does not include travel time to and from class. Release time is at the discretion of the immediate supervisor and appropriate vice president. At no time will the granting of release time be allowed to interfere with the proper completion of the employee's daily assigned duties.

At the discretion of the immediate supervisor, employees who request to take courses during the workday may be allowed, as operations permit, to adjust their work hours to fulfill their normal work hours per week. Schedule adjustments should be documented in the supervisor's file.
