Earl’s – tell them it is for UMW and that it is tax exempt

Target -  tell them it is for UMW and give them the tax exempt # - it is programmed into registers

Michael’s – give cashier the tax exempt number

Home Depot –  give cashier the UMW tax ID number

Dollar General – give them the UMW tax ID number – we should be in their system

Lowe’s -  their number for UMW is #04760205

Office Depot –  their number for UMW is #30243916

JoAnn Fabrics – in their system under UNIV Mary Washington, phone number 654-2011

Walmart – Grey Card with unique number, must give to cashier before the order is started

Best Buy – Tax Exempt Quick Card – issued to each purchaser. Check out at Service Desk with ST-12 and get your own

Giant Food -  fill out one of their forms at the register and show proof

Wegman’s - Coded into the ‘Shopper’s Club for Business’ plastic card (I have 2 extras that I can loan out)

BJ’s –  coded into the BJ’s membership card

Party City – ST-12 every time – fill out one of theirs, or take your own and save time

Hobby Lobby – ST-12 every time (they issue cards but won’t honor them)

A.C. Moore -  ST-12 – (they have a new card system, but can’t seem to get us a card)

In all cases, be sure to tell the cashier that you are making a tax exempt purchase before they start the order.  Most places require that payment be made with a University credit card or University check in order to honor the tax exemption.  Always keep a few ST-12s with you for emergencies.
