

The New Student Programs and Arrival Fee

This mandatory one-time fee is required of all undergraduate BA/BS students who are new to the University.

The New Student Programs and Arrival Fee covers costs associated with new student arrival and the first-year (transfer) experience. This includes programs designed to introduce students to the University and its values, resources and services; mandated training related to diversity, community values, and sexual assault; and new student arrival activities integrate students to the University community. It also includes academic advising, course registration, and common intellectual experiences.
